

JOHN S. MOMAN, AIA, NCARB

PRINCIPAL

Bachelor of Architecture - Texas Tech University, 1978

REGISTRATIONS

State of Texas - Architecture #11,013
State of Texas - Interior Design #4,972
NCARB #52,850

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

John's dedication to quality, creative ability and experience in design, project management, construction administration and architectural detail have contributed to the success of many projects he has directed. His ability to mediate and provide creative solutions in design requirements is an asset to the completion of every project. Maintaining a "hands-on" approach is priority as it provides experience and leadership.

ORGANIZATIONS AND ACTIVITIES

Round Rock City Council Member, Since 2009
Member Scott and White Advisory Board, Since 2008
Board Member Round Rock Area Arts Council, Since 2008
Board Member Envision Central Texas, Since 2007
Member of American Institute of Architects, Since 1985
Austin/San Antonio Corridor Council Economic Development Committee, Since 2003
Member of Real Estate Council of Austin, Since 2003
Member Round Rock Noon Rotary, Since 2003
Development Review Committee, Round Rock Chamber of Commerce, Since 2005
Member of Round Rock Momentum Group (formerly the Century Club), Since 1995
Member of Economic & Community Development, Round Rock Chamber, Since 1994
Faculty of Texas Leadership Institute of LCRA, 2003
Member of Development Review Board, City of Round Rock, 1994-2006
Board Member of Round Rock Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, 1994-2000
Chairman of Round Rock Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, 1998-1999